1. We would be pleased to continue communications training for GRREPAIR-15 during the period 19 March 1960 to 27 March 1960. The contact instructions are those contained in reference A, specifically identity 4.

2. With regard to the practice tape issued to GRREPAIR-15, it is normal in training an individual in the Morse code to have the person attempt to copy at speeds in excess of his capabilities. For example, a person fully capable of copying 10 WPM is trained at speeds of 14 and 15 WPM. This is standard pedagogical practice employed by all schools which instruct in telegraphic codes. Were we to issue a trainee a practice tape which was equal or less than his qualified proficiency, there would be no challenge to the individual to increase his copying capability. Further, it would result in the creation of what we term a "plateau", i.e., a speed at which the agent has no difficulty copying but, at the same time, a speed which he has great difficulty exceeding.

3. We were pleased to learn that GRREPAIR-15 enjoys his training sessions in Frankfurt.
